ULCERS 35 YEARS CURED BY CUTICURA.

My mother has been a victim to ulcers from varicose veins for thirty-five years. Eleven of those terrible sores have appeared at one time on the limb affected. Excruciating pain and intense suffering were endured, with effects of remedies on trial and numberless physicians' salts and prescriptions applied, all with but little benefit. At last the remedial agent was found in Cuticura, which surely proved worth its weight in gold, alleviating pain and causing healing process to commence and a cure speedily effected. Cuticura Soap is cleansing, purifying, and healing in its nature, proving itself a most excellent and valuable auxiliary to Cuticura (ointment). March 16, 1898. W. T. MORSE, Cabot, Vt.

THEY WANT A VOTE

Foreign Relations Committee Discusses Treaty.

In Some Doubt About the Wishes of the Opposition.

Think an Early Vote Should Be Sought.

Chairman Davis Instructed to Press Consideration of the Treaty—House and Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The senate committee on foreign relations today discussed the situation of the peace treaty in an informal way, giving especial attention to the proposition that a vote should be taken immediately. There was apparently a division of opinion as to whether the opposing senators were really as anxious for a vote as they professed to be, but the declaration was made by the friends of the treaty that they were not opposed to an early vote and while no formal instruction was given the opinion was generally expressed that an early vote should be sought. The opinion of the treaty supporters on the committee was, however, unanimous that the committee should hold the matter of fixing the date in its own hands. Chairman Davis was instructed to press consideration and to allow no time to be lost.

The members of the committee say that the vote should come soon but they name no specific day.

The committee decided practically to accept the proposition formulated by Senator Gorman to take a vote at the expiration of ten days of debate, but determined to hold the decision of the matter in its own hands. It was considered probable that there would be more speeches than could be made within this time and Mr. Davis was authorized to extend the time so as to permit a reasonable opportunity for debate.

The committee supporters of the treaty still generally express the opinion that when the vote is taken the treaty will be ratified. They admit that there now is apparently a majority against it, but express the opinion that some of the opponents will change front before the vote is taken.

No disposition was manifested in the committee to accept a compromise on the treaty.

IN THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—At the beginning of today's session of the senate, Mr. Hale, chairman of the committee on naval affairs, reported the naval personnel bill and gave notice that at the earliest time possible he would call it up for consideration.

Mr. Chandler, of New Hampshire, introduced a bill temporarily creating the office of admiral of the navy. It was referred to the naval affairs committee.

The senate then, at 12:50 p. m., on motion of Mr. Davis, chairman of the foreign relations committee, went into executive session.

The senate was in executive session forty-five minutes and before it was concluded an agreement had been reached to take a vote on the peace treaty not later than 3 o'clock Monday, February 6. Authority was also given for making announcement of this agreement public.

Senator Davis, from the committee on foreign relations, has offered amendment to the sundry civil bill, appropriating $20,000,000 to pay Spain according to the terms of the treaty. The amendment has the indorsement of the committee on foreign relations.

THE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The house today resumed the debate on the army reorganization bill. Saturday, February 18, was set aside for the delivery of eulogies upon the late Rev. P. Northway, of Ohio. Mr. Gibson (republican), from Tennessee, was the first speaker today. He advocated the passage of the Hull bill.

In the course of his remarks he argued that it was too soon for us to decide upon a permanent policy regarding the Philippine. Our present policy should be delayed until we had thoroughly investigated the situation.

Mr. Johnson, republican, of Indiana, then took the floor in opposition to the bill. As he arose the democrats applauded and members squared themselves around in anticipation of some sensational utterances.

RABBI AARON TONIGHT.

He Will Deliver His Lecture, "Palestine and America," at Hebrew Temple.

Tonight, at the Hebrew Temple, Rabbi I. Aaron, one of the most scholarly men in the ranks of Reformed Judeaism of America, will deliver his much talked of lecture, "Palestine and America." Rabbi Aaron held the pulpit in Fort Wayne for some years, but other fields held out better inducements for his advance in his chosen life work. He is now rabbi at Buffalo, N. Y.

The Hebrew congregation in Fort Wayne has never turned away when other denominations sought support in any of their undertakings and now it is hoped that the people generally, irrespective of creed, will turn out this evening and give Rabbi Aaron a warm welcome. The lecture will begin at 8 o'clock. The musical program has been augmented by the services of the Haydn quartet.

PATTI'S THIRD.

The Great Diva is Once More Married.

The Happy Groom is Baron Von Cederstrom—The Ceremony Performed in Wales—Happy Event.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—Adeline Patti, the singer, was married today at Brecon, Wales, to Baron Cederstrom, director of the health gymnastic institute here. Madame Patti took a train from Craig y Nos, her residence, to Brecon, which was prettily decorated for the occasion. The band of the South Wales Borderers met the party at the station, and with the fire brigade and the police, headed by the town banner and the mace bearers, escorted the wedding party in five landaus to the Roman Catholic church, which had been specially decorated. Sir George Faudel Phillips, former lord mayor of London, gave Patti away. The service was very short.

Baron and Baroness Cederstrom emerged from the church at 11 o'clock, entered the carriage, the procession was reformed and the bride and groom proceeded to the railroad station and started for London. They received an ovation. The wedding breakfast was served on board the train, which was composed of the special corridor cars built for the prince of Wales.

Madame Patti was married in a traveling dress of dove colored satin, embroidered with steel, with a bodice of pale grey and a bonnet trimmed with mauve orchids. Her traveling cape, which matched her dress, was ornamented with a design of true lover's knots.

The procession to the church and returning to the station passed under several triumphal arches bearing inscriptions in honor of the bride. The streets were thronged with people and the church was crowded with invited guests.

The wedding party will reach London late this afternoon. The bride and bridegroom will start tomorrow for the south of France, where they will spend the honeymoon.

EAGAN IS ON TRIAL.

The Commissary General Before a Court Martial.

Pleads Not Guilty to the Two Charges.

He, However, Admits the Language Alleged.

General Eagan's Attorney Outlines Defense—Says Eagan is Not Answerable to Any Court.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The board of army officers designated by the secretary of war to sit as a court martial in the case of Brig. Gen. Chas. P. Eagan, commissary general of subsistence, charged with conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, and conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in connection with his testimony before the war investigating committee, met in the red parlor of the Ebbitt house at 10 o'clock this morning and almost immediately proceeded to the business in hand.

THE COURT.

The court consisted of the following distinguished officers of the army:

Maj. Gen. Wesley Merritt, United States army.

Maj. Gen. James F. Wade, United States volunteers.

Maj. Gen. M. C. Butler, United States army.

Maj. Gen. S. B. Young, United States volunteers.

Brig. Gen. Royal T. Frank, United States volunteers.

Brig. Gen. George M. Randall, United States volunteers.

Brig. Gen. Jacob Kline, United States volunteers.

Brig Gen. Richard Combs, United States volunteers.

Col. Peter Haines, corps of engineers.

Col. George L. Gillespie, corps of engineers.

Col. Charles R. Suter, corps of engineers.

Col. Francis L. Guenther, Fourth artillery.

Lieut. Col. George B. Davis, deputy judge advocate general, judge advocate of the court.

The members of the court, who appeared in full dress uniform, were seated about a long table placed lengthwise of the room, General Merritt, the president of the court, occupying the seat at the head. At just 10 o'clock Colonel Davis called the roll of the court, all of the members responding to their names. As he concluded General Eagan appeared with his counsel, A. S. Worthington, formerly United States district attorney for the District of Columbia, and took seats near the judge advocate at the foot of the table. General Eagan also wore the dress uniform of his rank. Almost immediately Colonel Davis arose and introduced General Eagan and his counsel and then proceeded to read the order convening the court.

The judge advocate, when this was concluded, turned to General Eagan and inquired whether he objected to any of the members of the court as designated by the order. General Eagan replied:

"I do not."

The members of the court then arose and took the usual oath, which was administered by Colonel Davis.

CHARGES AND SPECIFICATIONS.

The charges and specifications were then read, as follows:

"Charge 1. Conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman.

"Specification—In that Brig. Gen. Charles P. Eagan, commissary general of subsistence, United States army, did, while testifying as a witness before the commission appointed by the president to investigate the conduct of the war department in the war with Spain, submit and read as a part of his testimony a certain written statement in which he did make use of, and thereby publish the following disgraceful, grossly insulting, and ungentlemanly language with reference to Maj. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, commanding the army, namely:

"'If and when General Miles charges that it (meaning tinned fresh beef) was furnished as a "pretense of experiment" he lies in his throat, he lies in his heart, he lies in every hair of his head and every pore of his body, he lies wilfully, deliberately, intentionally and maliciously. * * * In denouncing General Miles as a liar when he makes this statement, I wish to make it as emphatic and as coarse as the statement itself. I wish to force the lie back into his throat, covered with the contents of a camp latrine.'

"This at Washington, D. C., January 12, 1899.

"Charge 2—Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline.

"Specification—In that Brig. Gen. Charles P. Eagan, commissary general of subsistence, United States army, did, while testifying as a witness before the commission appointed by the president to investigate the conduct of the war department in the war with Spain, submit and read, as a part of his testimony, a certain written statement in which he did make use of, and thereby publish, the following grossly abusive and unmilitary language with reference to the major general commanding the army, namely:

"'If and when General Miles charges that it (meaning tinned fresh beef) was furnished as a "pretense of experiment," he lies in his throat, he lies in his heart, he lies in every hair of his head, and every pore of his body, he lies wilfully, deliberately, intentionally, and maliciously. If his statement is true that this was furnished under "pretense of experiment," then I should be drummed out of the army and incarcerated in state prison. If this statement is false, as I assert it to be, then he should be drummed out of the service and incarcerated in prison with other libelors. His statement is a scandalous libel, reflecting upon the honor of every officer in the department who has contracted for or purchased this meat, and especially and particularly on the commissary general—myself. In denouncing General Miles as a liar when he makes this statement, I wish to make it as emphatic and coarse as the statement itself. I wish to force the lie back into his throat covered with the contents of a camp latrine. I wish to brand it as a falsehood of whole cloth, without a particle of truth to sustain it, and unless he can prove his statement he should be denounced by every honest man, barred from the clubs, barred from the society of decent people, and so ostracized that the street bootblacks would not condescend to speak to him, for he has fouled his own nest, he has aspersed the honor of a brother officer without a particle of evidence or fact to sustain in any degree his scandalous, libelous, malicious falsehood, viz.: that this beef or anything whatever was furnished the army under "pretense of experiment."'

"This at Washington, D. C., January 12, 1899."

During these preliminary proceedings General Eagan exhibited no signs of nervousness, but the expression of his face and his manner clearly indicated that he realized that the trial involved consequences to him of the gravest character. While he stood listening to the charges and specifications, his face seemed somewhat paler than usual.

PLEAS NOT GUILTY.

At the conclusion of the reading on being requested to plead to the specification to the first charge he said:

"Not guilty, not denying, however, that the specification sets forth correctly a part of the language used."

To the first charge, he pleaded "not guilty." To the specifications to the second charge, he pleaded "not guilty, not denying, however, that the specification sets forth correctly a part of the language used."

To the second charge he pleaded "not guilty."

The judge advocate then arose and said that the case in hand was a peculiar one, but presented no unusual difficulties. The accused had seen fit to add to his plea of not guilty some words tending to qualify it, but he did not think the plea relieved the court from the necessity of proving the facts alleged. Judge Worthington responded briefly and explained why the qualifying words had been used upon his recommendation.

The specifications did the accused a great injustice in that it selected particular expressions without giving the context, and in one or more instances the specifications quoted in the middle of a sentence.

GENERAL EAGAN'S DEFENSE.

Continuing, Mr. Worthington said that he desired to state briefly to the court the substance of General Eagan's defense. Whatever said he, the court may think of the propriety of the language used by General Eagan before the war investigation committee there was no doubt in his (Worthington's) mind that he was fully protected in using that language by the laws of the land. In no court, civil or military, he said, could the accused be held accountable for his language even if it could be shown that the speaker was actuated by malice. In addition to this the president of the United States had instructed the war investigation committee to announce publicly that witnesses before that tribunal would be given immunity for whatever they might testify to. This was a solemn promise given by the president of the United States, and counsel had no doubt that the court would find that General Eagan could not under these circumstances be held to answer to a military court martial for his language.

General Alger had replied that under the president's order of immunity General Miles could not be held responsible for his language before the committee.

GOADED TO DESPERATION.

The newspapers then took it up and goaded General Eagan almost to desperation. He had come to believe that the press and the country at large had accepted the accusations made by General Miles as true, and the condition of his mind, in consequence, grew worse and worse until he was in a state bordering on distraction. The language which General Eagan used under these circumstances was the natural outburst of an honest man suffering under an unjust accusation. In closing Judge Worthington said that General Eagan could not be held accountable for his language before any tribunal in this country, civil or military, and particularly under the president's order of immunity.

General Miles, he said, had appeared before the committee about three weeks before General Eagan had made his statement, and on that occasion had made most serious and sweeping charges against many of his subordinates and particularly against him and the commissary department of the army. He had charged General Eagan with being incompetent and neglectful of his duties and had inferentially charged him, General Eagan, with issuing poisoned meat to the soldiers of the army and had averred that many had died in consequence. He had also implied that General Eagan was acting corruptly in the matter. Immediately upon reading the testimony given by General Miles, General Eagan went to the secretary of war and asked leave to bring charges against him.

CALLED ON PRESIDENT.

At 10:50 o'clock word came from the white house that the president would receive the members of the court between 11 and 12 o'clock. Thereupon General Merritt announced that the court would take a recess for the purpose of paying their respects to the president of the United States.

On reassembling at 11:30 o'clock, a few minutes was given a photographer in which to take a picture of the court, and then Major S. C. Mills was called to testify on behalf of the government. He said he was the recorder of the war investigating commission, and was present and heard General Eagan's testimony before the commission.

HOUSE FOR BOUNTY.

Sugar Beet Measure Gets a Small Respite.

House Cuts the Proposed Bounty in Half.

Manufacturers Thinks the Bill is Dead.

The County Reform Measure is Given a Push in the Right Direction—The Legislature.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 25.—The legislation for reform in county and township business was pushed along another notch yesterday, the house accepting the committee report favorable to the passage of the bill to establish a county council in every county in the state. The county and township bill will now go to a joint committee, which will report back bills for the consideration of the republican caucus. The disposition is to accept in the main the bill prepared under the direction of the state commission.

In the senate the bill providing for the employment of the convicts in the state's prison at Michigan City was passed. One-half of the convicts are to be employed on contract work and the other half on farm land, which the board of managers is authorized to lease.

The bill under which it was proposed to license barbers was killed in the senate.

The house voted to accept the report of the committee on agriculture recommending that the sugar bounty bill be passed. Since the bill was defeated in the senate the manufacturers interested have small hope of its passage.

The house advanced to engrossment the bill to establish the metropolitan police system in all cities of not less than 10,000 nor more than 30,000 population, after the section authorizing the mayors to appoint the boards had been stricken out. The governor is to make the appointments.

The republicans of the senate caucused yesterday on the proposed reorganization of the state board of education and decided to support a bill providing that the board shall be composed of seven persons, six of whom shall be appointed by the governor. The state superintendent is to be the seventh man. Of the six to be appointed by the governor, four must be educators of repute.

Several important bills were passed during the day. The convict labor bill was approved, and the barbers' bill, looking to a state commission and the licensing of journeymen barbers, was knocked out by the judiciary committee.

A bill was also passed providing that township pupils shall have the advantage of a high school education. Either the township could establish a high school or could join with other townships in promoting one. This failing, then the township must pay the expenses of the pupil at the nearest high school.

The convict labor bill has special reference to the Michigan city prison. It stipulates that one-half of the convicts in that institution are to be employed on contract labor, and the other half on farm land leased by the board of managers. The public accounts system is to be gradually introduced, to be in full force at the end of five years.

The bill creating a commission of fish and game, and providing that he shall have supervision over the fisheries and the game of the state, also passed the senate today. The bill is a pet measure with ex-Consul General Sweeney, of Columbus, now serving as commissioner.

CHARTER CHANGES.

Republican Clubs are Advocating Some Changes in the City Charter.

If the legislature listens to the members of the republican clubs of Fort Wayne there will be some amendments to the city charter which have not been on the earlier programs. Last evening a meeting of the Soldiers' Sons' and Citizens' club was held in the club rooms and there was expressed a sentiment in favor of some radical changes, principal of which is the adoption of the metropolitan police system. A committee was appointed to confer with the Tippecanoe club and ask their assistance in getting the amendments through the legislature. The committee is composed of Hugh Stewart, James Liggett, I. N. Metzgar, Henry Hild and A. R. Walter.

THE POLICY GAME.

Backers of the Game Will Fight the Next Arrests.

Superintendent Gorsline Has Information to That Effect—Will Get Strong Evidence.

Mayor Scherer and Superintendent Gorsline are keeping a sharp look-out for policy dealers. This morning they talked the matter over and the superintendent told the mayor it was impossible to get evidence, and as far as he knew he believed there was no playing in the city. The superintendent was of the opinion, however, that an attempt would be made to go ahead by the dealers, and he had received information that when the next arrests were made the cases would be fought through all the courts. For this reason he was determined to get evidence of the strongest character, so that conviction would be a certainty.

He told the mayor that many schemes had been adopted by the men who peddled tickets. One of these is for the person who wants to play the game to place the numbers on a piece of paper, wrap the coin in the paper on which the numbers are written and place it in a receptacle or somewhere, at least, where the policy dealer can get it without asking questions. When the numbers are received the dealer follows the same plan and the personal exchange of money is never made.

The superintendent said that the next time arrests were made the player as well as the dealer would be arrested and he hoped in this manner to get evidence which will convict regardless of any fight that may be made by the dealer. Mayor Scherer did not disagree with the superintendent and the indications are that there will be no policy if there is any legal way to stop the game.

HE HAD THE GRIP.

William Gardner was arraigned in police court this morning on a charge of drunkenness. Officer Greer arrested him at the south depot. Gardner told the Mayor that he lived in the country and yesterday having a slight attack of the grip came to town to get some medicine. He got it intermingled with some whisky and was soon under the influence for the first time in his life. It being his first offense he was discharged.

OTHER FINES.

Louis Scharzer, the peddler arrested without a vehicle tag, pleaded guilty and was fined fifty cents and costs, amounting in all to $3.50, which he paid.

Frederick Plockey was charged with drunkenness. He came to the station and asked for lodging last night, carrying with him at the time a comfortable "jag." While in the tramp cell he commenced to fight with one of the other "tourists" and the officers locked him up. Plockey was quite fresh in court and the mayor fixed his fine at $5 and costs and the fellow went to jail.

THE NEW AVELINE.

Mortgage Will be Foreclosed on the Property.

T. B. Shoaff Orders a Local Attorney to Begin Suit.

First and Second Mortgage Aggregate $90,000.

Suit Commenced Today Against Sheriff Melching—Suit for Twenty Years of Labor.

THE SENTINEL is authoritatively informed this afternoon that one of Fort Wayne's prominent attorneys has received from Thomas B. Shoaff, of New York, an order to commence suit to foreclose a mortgage for $90,000 which he holds against the New Aveline property.

This suit will cover the first mortgage for $15,000 and the second mortgage or lien for $75,000. There is a third mortgage of $35,000 held by a New York bank, which was placed on record in Allen county by Attorney S. E. Cook, of Huntington, about two weeks ago.

The sale of the property will not affect the tenure of the lease of Messrs. Jones and Ivans, who will continue to manage and control the popular hostlery for two years to come at least.

SUES THE SHERIFF.

Attorney R. B. Dreibelbiss this afternoon filed a complaint in the circuit court in which Will W. Morrison asks for $800 damages against Sheriff A. E. Melching and his bondsmen. The complaint alleges that the sheriff levied on property in the possession of Novatus H. Hubbard to satisfy a judgment given Cass. D. Dudgeon and sold it, when at the time he levied on the property it was mortgaged to Will W. Morrison. Coroner Barnett must perform the duties of the sheriff in serving the papers.

Senator Lodge hit the nail and some of the anti-treaty senators on the head when, in his speech in the senate, he urged prompt ratification of the treaty and discussion of the Philippine question afterward.

The charge is made that in some states—notably in the West—United States senatorships come high. On the other hand, it cost Senator Hawley of Connecticut but three dollars for his re-election, that sum having been expended in postage. It is a pity that the Connecticut plan of considering brains before dollars cannot be followed everywhere.

The prospect of legislation looking to county and township reform is still a little vague, though the friends in charge of those measures in the legislature are confident that some of the best things in the bills now pending will be crystalized into law. Surely the members of the general assembly can be in no doubt of the necessity for reform, though they may stand in some fear or under some influence of those whose interests are opposed to reform.

The New York Mail and Express urges that the United States shall hand over to Great Britain a Philippine quit claim in exchange for the following British insular possessions within the "American sphere of influence:" Bermudas, Bahamas, Turk's and Caicos, Jamaica, St. Lucia, St. Vincent, Barbadoes, Grenada, Tobago, Virgin Island, St. Christopher, Nevis, Antigua, Montserrat, Dominica and Trinidad. These have a total area of 12,075 square miles and a population of 1,225,678.

The Society for Political Study of New York City is composed of women. An attempt was made at the last meeting to array the society against the execution of the penalty of death pronounced by a court of justice at the direction of the law in punishment of murder committed by a woman. The attempt to have the society take that position was successful. But this is the interesting part of it: Some of the ladies wished the appeal to the governor made because the victim of the law was a woman. But the majority, more logical, said that it would be a blow to equal rights to put the claim on that ground, and after discussion it was decided unanimously to oppose the electrocution of Mrs. Place and base the opposition simply on the contention that capital punishment was wrong for man or woman. So the women will not oppose because she is a woman the electrocution of a woman, but will oppose the death penalty as such. This simplifies the question and shows that the women have keener minds than some of their alleged male defenders.

General Rabi is a Cuban insurgent who needs prompt and drastic reconstruction. He has taken to the groves in the hills with a thousand or two armed followers and his design is no doubt to make trouble. The peaceable element of the Cuban population no less than the government of the United States cannot afford to let General Rabi roam at large with so strong a force of armed men at his back. Prosperity is already beginning in Cuba and with those more settled conditions that will now come rapidly the people of that island will not be long kept out of the enjoyment of plenty and perfect peace. It is costing the United States a pretty penny to establish order in Cuba and prepare the way for the safe establishment of an independent government and this government cannot allow its good work to be jeopardized by any one or any number of Cubans. General Rabi's expedition to the hills with armed men is in utter defiance of American authority and there is but one thing to do. Sufficient force should be dispatched to bring him back and disarm his followers.

SHOT BY A WOMAN.

John McCaffrey, Formerly of This City, the Victim.

Shooting Occurred in St. Louis Monday Night—Woman in the Case Tried to Poison Herself.

John McCaffrey, a former Fort Waynite, was shot by a young woman named Kate Clancey last Monday night. The shooting occurred in St. Louis, on a street car of which McCaffrey was the conductor.

The Clancey woman boarded the car and when he went to collect her fare, rose in her seat and accused McCaffrey of being unfaithful in his promises of love to her. She then drew a revolver and fired at him, the ball plowing through his throat and just missing the jugular vein. She fired again as he fell, putting another ball through his shoulder. The woman was arrested and while in custody swallowed bi-chloride of mercury and is in a dying condition.

At last accounts McCaffrey was in a precarious state, with slight chances of recovery.

John McCaffrey worked several years in the Pennsylvania boiler shop, where his father, Thomas McCaffrey, was a veteran employe. John left here in 1892, going to St. Louis, where he since lived. He was married to a St. Louis girl about five years ago. He is about thirty years old. Mrs. McCaffrey was sick at the time of the tragedy and was not informed of it.

NORTHERN INDIANA NOTES.

The grocery firm of Everitt, Hite & Co., at Decatur, suffered a loss of $2,500 by fire Sunday night.

George P. Rowell, one of Goshen oldest and most prominent citizens, is dead at the age of eighty-six. He had lived in Elkhart county sixty-four years.

News has been received at Argos of the burning to death in their home in Wisconsin of Mr. and Mrs. William Stickley, formerly residents of Argos.

Dr. H. H. Gillen, for forty years a resident of Wabash county, died Sunday in Florida, where he usually spent his winters. He owned large orange groves in that state and had grown wealthy in the culture of that fruit. Dr. Gillen was born in Kentucky eighty-one years ago.

Fred King, aged about fifty-six years, employed on the Major farm near Mishawaka, met death in a peculiar manner. He was engaged in loading hay when the pole broke, striking him and throwing him from the wagon. His neck was broken and he was dead when picked up. He leaves a wife and two children.

For two or three days Decatur was terrorized by a large gang of hoboes who had invaded the town and refused to leave. Sunday night an armed posse of citizens made an assault on the tramps and after a little skirmish, in which some shots were exchanged, succeeded in driving them out. No one was hurt. Sunday several citizens were held up and robbed and two oil men from Preble were relieved of $350 on the main thoroughfare of the town.

The Universal Atlas.

R. Spence, representing the George F. Cram atlas and map publishing house, of Chicago and New York, is in Fort Wayne introducing the new Cram's Universal Atlas. This admirable atlas comprehends an almost inconceivable wealth of geographical, astronomical and historical information. The numerous maps are perfectly executed and all based on the very latest information and surveys. The work is a splendid specimen of bookmaking and in its contents is strictly "up to date," a quality no less rare than essential.

Mayor Reviews the Affairs of the City During 1898.

Mayor Scherer Explains a Matter Which Was Discussed at One of the Charter Committee Meetings.

At the regular meeting of the city council last night all councilmen were present except Messrs. Gerding, Hayes and Hosey. Mayor Scherer submitted his annual report, which was attentively listened to. It was a review of the work of the several departments of the city during 1898 and contained only a few recommendations. He expressed himself as satisfied with the showing made by the comptroller's annual report and congratulated the board of works on the improvements which had been made to streets, alleys and sewers. He said he hoped the board of works would begin early in the spring to push improvements. As long as the people want them and are willing to pay for them he believed that they should have them and that the council should provide means for the city to pay its share of the expense.

There had been built during the year over two miles of brick and cement sidewalks and almost every thoroughfare of prominence had good walks and he believed that soon every street would be provided with walks.

He reviewed the park report and urged the board of works to hereafter give special care to these beauty spots which do so much toward making Fort Wayne a veritable pleasure resort. They should be liberally maintained.

He was especially laudatory of garbage crematory and said that daily garbage collectors were becoming better acquainted with their routes and soon there should be no complaint because garbage was not properly disposed of. The department is closely allied to that of the health department and the board and council ought not to spare any necessary expense to make the system perfect.

He reviewed the work of the fire and police departments as shown by the reports of the superintendent of police and fire chief, and said that in both Fort Wayne ranked with the best cities in the country. There were only a few men on the police department as compared with other cities and still the city has been comparatively free from crime. He commended the chiefs and members of both departments.

As to these two items of expense of the city government the mayor made no special recommendation further than to say that too much economy practiced by the council in appropriations pertaining to the police or fire departments might materially destroy the efficiency of that branch of the public service. The citizens demanded that they be protected in person and property, and it was through the efficiency of these two departments that such protection was given.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

"The general health of the city during the year 1898," the Mayor said, "has been exceptionally good. Sanitary conditions have been improved by the construction of sewers and the collecting and incineration of garbage. The alleys and collars of the city have been kept comparatively clean and many other conditions heretofore existing that were conducive to sickness removed. The board of health has been active in their efforts to make Fort Wayne a healthy city. The resident physicians have co-operated with the board in the performance of its work, and to a large extent, aided and assisted in maintaining the general good health of the city. The charter's provisions are exceedingly liberal in providing ways and means for the preservation of public health.

"There is scarcely anything that the board of health cannot do to avert or remove epidemics or clear the city of contagious diseases. But the powers granted by the charter are general and to make them practical and effective, it is necessary to provide by ordinance the things necessary.

"The old ordinance of 1887 framed under the provisions of the old charter, is too limited, and ought to be amended, so as to encompass all the possible orders that the board might find necessary to make in the case of an epidemic or the suppression of contagious diseases.

"The report of the board is to me highly satisfactory, and I believe will be to the council, yet I want to call the attention of the council to the 'existing necessity' for a 'contagious hospital.' The matter is now before the council in the form of a petition from the board of health, asked that such a building be constructed. Two or more cases of scarlet fever or diphtheria presented themselves during the year, that were quite embarrassing to the authorities in charge. Poor people without homes, or strangers in the city with no means, cannot be provided for in cases of this character, and the consequences generally are, that patients are lodged and cared for in a manner that endangers the health of the entire city.

"I understand propositions have been made, whereby provision can be made at no great expense, and if so it ought to be done.

"Too much cannot be said of the good work that is being done and has been done by the city bacteriologist. He has been faithful and efficient in his work, and the office as now conducted, carries with it the confidence and endorsement of the medical fraternity of the city, and also that of the public.

THE WATER WORKS.

"The waterworks department of the city is in excellent condition and from all appearances the question of water supply has been settled. It is the opinion of the waterworks trustees as well as others claiming some knowledge of the water supply, that the lands purchased by the city last winter for waterworks purposes will be all the city will need for years to come.

"The pumping capacity has been by the council declared sufficient and no more money need be expended for that purpose. A good deal of money has been expended in the last two years in extensions, wells, buildings and lands, but with all those supplied, the revenues of the department will be more than enough to pay the operating expenses of the plant and the interest on the water works bonds."

REPORTS SUBMITTED.

The annual reports of the board of works and of Comptroller Berghoff were submitted and referred to the proper committees. The comptroller's report showed that in the firemen's pension fund there was available a fund of $5,735.57. Part of the money is invested in city improvement bonds and has an earning capacity. The comptroller also submitted his recommendations for refunding of bonds when they fall due. This plan was printed in The Sentinel a week ago.

OTHER BUSINESS.

A petition for an electric light at the corner of Broadway and Organ avenue was referred to the committee on lights.

The ordinance of Councilman Wheelock providing for the creation of a sinking fund from the water works department's surplus for the purpose of paying bonds was passed on recommendation of the committee on rules, regulations and ordinances, which had substituted surplus for $24,000.

Councilman McMahon moved that the mayor appoint a committee of five to inquire into the provisions of the police pension bill carefully. The committee is to make a report to the council. The mayor appointed on the committee Councilmen McMahon, Schuler, Bauer and Lennert.

Councilman Wheelock called attention to the statement of D. N. Foster, made at a meeting of the charter committee, that Charles Sanderland, who had allowed a fire engine to burn out at the City trucking barn's fire, had been reinstated at the solicitation of the Machinists' union. Mayor Scherer said that the machinists had not requested him to reinstate Sunderland, but that the case was investigated and it was shown that Sunderland, although it was the first fire he had attended, discovered the condition of his engine and pulled the fire in time to prevent excessive damage. The engine was being repaired at the central station at a cost not to exceed $30, which Sunderland would pay. There was some discussion and Councilmen Hench and Wheelock had some hot words over the merits of unions. In the midst of the talk some tired councilman moved adjournment and the motion carried.

THE INTER-STATE.

A New Castle Correspondent Reports It to be Having Trouble With Its Wheels.

A New Castle special says: The coming meeting of the magnates of the Inter-State league here the last of this month, is being looked forward to with great interest by local men. It is to be decided at this meeting what clubs are to compose the league.

Several cities will ask for admission and several that have been represented in the past may lose their franchises. The Springfield club has been having trouble lately, and it may be forced to drop out. Wheeling, which formerly held a franchise, is making efforts to have a club there, and several prominent sporting men of that place are said to be backing the move. Only one or two of the Western league clubs made money last season, and Indianapolis may ask for admission to the Inter-State. Fort Wayne was a heavy loser during the season just closed and may drop out this year and Indianapolis will make a try for its franchise. The admission of both Indianapolis and Wheeling would not increase the length of the circuit and would be better financially for the other clubs, as Springfield and Fort Wayne only got crowds to the Sunday games, visiting clubs playing for the bare guarantee on week days.

At the invitation of Miss Carrie Hughes a number of musical people were last evening privileged to meet Miss Edith Allen Watts, of Chicago, who will sing at the Morning Musical anniversary meeting this evening. The occasion was opportune for an informal musicale and a very excellent little program was given by Miss Watts, Mrs. Alice Sweringen-Fellows, of Chicago, Miss Sweringen, Miss Yarnelle and Miss Margie Hanna. A buffet luncheon was served after the program.

LETTER FROM CUBA.

Private Adrian Winegardner Writes From Matanzas.

He Went There With the One Hundred and Sixtieth Regiment—Tells of the People, Customs and Other Things.

Miss Maud Winegardner, of 19 Lavina street, is in receipt of an interesting letter from her brother, Adrian Winegardner, who is a soldier in the One Hundred and Sixtieth Indiana regiment and accompanied that regiment to Matanzas, Cuba. Private Winegardner lived here prior to his enlisting but he formerly resided in Columbia City where his parents still make their home. A few extracts of the letter are here given:

"Matanzas, Cuba, Jan. 17, '99.

"The One Hundred and Sixtieth regiment arrived here a week ago, via Charleston, S. C., from Columbus. Matanzas has a population of 88,000. When we arrived here there were 16,000 soldiers here from Spain but they have all sailed from home. You would be surprised to see the people, their customs and the city itself. The streets here are no wider than our alleys at home. The Cubans seem to think that there is nobody like the American soldier and we are treated very kindly by them. It is hot. We never had summer weather in Indiana as hot as it is here now and it is only January. What will it be next summer?

"Tropical groves are all around us here and tropical fruits are plentiful and cheap. For instance, oranges and lemons can be bought five and six for a nickel and bananas are only two cents a dozen; pineapples, three cents each. Articles of clothing are high. Common shoes are $5 a pair, better quality $8 to $11; hose which sell for twenty-five cents in the states are $2.50 a pair; underclothes of the commonest kind are $4 a suit.

"Three soldiers from our regiment have been appointed to work in the postoffice as the Cuban mail clerks cannot sort out the American mail. The town has a beautiful plaza, on which various kinds of tropical plants grow to a height of forty and fifty feet. The dress here is white duck, linen or checkered calico. I am gradually catching on to the Spanish language and expect to understand a good deal of it if I stay here my two years' of service."

A GREAT BENEFACTOR!

Famous men often emerge from obscurity through no merits but their own, which are intelligence, activity, ambition, honesty, integrity and all the attending attributes. Gloria Tonic, the great benefactor to suffering mankind, has likewise won its "laurels" in modestly and unassumingly performing the most wonderful and miraculous cures of rheumatism. Through its wonderful curative power, it has saved many men from misery and torture, besides, many a home from destitution.

Gloria Tonic has found an ardent admirer in Mr. Mich. Balder of Corning, Parry Co., Ohio. This unfortunate gentleman, who has been a prey to that merciless disease, rheumatism, since the year 1871, and who had spent a fortune with physicians in search of a cure, wrote Mr. Smith, the maker of Gloria Tonic, the following letter: I give you the privilege to publish the fact that your remedy Gloria Tonic completely cured me of rheumatism, from which I suffered since 1871. Last year I could only walk with the aid of a cane, but 5 packages of Gloria Tonic completely cured me. Mr. Smith has a wonderful array of testimony to show, that Gloria Tonic will cure any kind of rheumatism.

Gloria Tonic is made by John A. Smith, 188 & 190 Summerfield Church Building, Milwaukee, Wis., and is now on sale at all druggists at $1.00 a package.

A little book on rheumatism will be mailed free to all who send their name to Mr. Smith.

SHAKEN BY EARTHQUAKE.

Mexico Gets a Violent Rocking and Much Damage is Done.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—A special to the Record from the City of Mexico says:

In point of duration the earthquake last evening was the severest ever known in the history of Mexico. The movement began in the City of Mexico at exactly nine minutes past 5 o'clock. The oscillations were from northeast to southwest and lasted one minute and fifty-six seconds. Three minutes later came an accompanying shock, which lasted five seconds, also oscillating northwest and southeast. The movement made a perfect cross.

The earthquake was universally felt over the entire republic and it had a general movement from the Pacific to the Atlantic. It reached Colima at seven minutes past 5 o'clock, oscillating from east and west. It lasted one minute and twenty seconds. It reached Vera Cruz eighteen minutes past 5 and the oscillations were from south to north, lasting ten seconds.

Many houses were cracked in this city. Some were entirely ruined. Fully a dozen walls were crushed and broken in the national palace. A two foot iron pipe carrying water from Chapultepec to the city was broken in seven places. Intense cold and other phenomena followed.

THE ARMY CANTEEN.

Chaplain Medbury, of the One Hundred and Fifty-seventh, Talks About It.

Members of the Women's Christian Temperance union who were not at the meeting Tuesday afternoon missed the opportunity of hearing Chaplain Medbury, of the One Hundred and Fifty-seventh regiment. He gave a most interesting and instructive talk on the army canteen and of the life of the boys in camp. For only two weeks was there a canteen in the One Hundred and Fifty-seventh regiment.

TALK OF MORE BONDS

Another Issue to Pay for Intercepting Sewer.

It May be Necessary for a Special Law to Pass the Legislature—Municipal Affairs.

In discussing ways and means for constructing the proposed intercepting sewer, the board of works is desirous of distributing the cost so that it will fall as lightly as possibly on the shoulders of each property owner. It is estimated that the sewer will cost between $125,000 and $175,000 and to place an assessment as large as this for collection on one payment would hardly be fair, especially on the residents of South Wayne, who will be compelled to pay for the construction of the sewer connecting that portion of the city with the intercepting sewer. This morning Messrs. Eggemann, McCracken and Kane, of the board of works, met in the engineer's office and talked over the matter.

The concensus of their opinion was that the best method to pursue would be to issue sewer bonds, the proceeds from the sale thereof to be devoted exclusively to building the proposed intercepting sewer. In order that these bonds might be issued the legislature would have to pass a law authorizing their issuance, inasmuch as the city is already bonded to its limit. An estimate of the cost of the sewer could be made, and the board believes it will be much less than $200,000, and the legislature can be asked to grant the right to issue bonds in the sum estimated. These bonds would be made payable by the city and every property owner would be compelled to pay a share toward their payment.

The members of the board assert that the big sewer will be a benefit to Bloomingdale and Lakeside because it would carry away the debris which at present accumulates in the bed and on the banks of the rivers along these additions and causes a terrible stench in warm weather which is a continual menace to good health. The board takes a position in favor of bonds, but before taking action will first learn the opinion of tax payers on the question. If the bonds are not issued it will be necessary to collect the money by assessment and it will be much harder to pay than by meeting bonds when they fall due a few years hence.

AN EXPERT COMING.

F. Herbert Snow, a sanitary expert, who is now in Indianapolis, will be in Fort Wayne tomorrow. The board of works this morning decided to have the opinion of an expert and Dr. Dreyer was authorized to invite Mr. Snow to come. He is a consulting sanitary engineer of considerable reputation and the city authorities are very desirous of having his opinion.

ANOTHER PETITION.

A petition is circulating on Buchanan street for a brick pavement on that thoroughfare from Lafayette street to Winter street. This means eleven squares of pavement and would make one of the longest paved streets in the city.

A REMONSTRANCE.

A remonstrance has been filed with the board of works against the paving of Walton avenue. It is signed by Clark Fairbank and twenty-three others.

Mr. Hull is known from one end of the State of Tennessee to the other, having been in the ministry for over half a century. Therefore, such endorsements give Utah Kidney Beans a standing that no other kidney remedy in the country has. Allen County Officers Deny That a Conference Will be Held in Indianapolis.

The Indianapolis papers and special dispatches sent out from the state capital about that a letter has been sent to county officers of Indiana, inviting them to Indianapolis to assist in the defeat of the county and township reform bills.

The assertion is made strong by intimating that an effort would be made to buy legislators. County Auditor Moyer tells the The Sentinel that there is no truth in the story. No letters were received here and he did not believe that county officers were anticipating any particularly adverse legislation this winter. He believes that some of the township officers may be arranging to fight the reform bill and that the newspaper men have got matters mixed.

A conference was held some time ago and it was decided to ask the legislature to make some amendments to the fee and salary bill, which the officers believed were permissible and a committee was appointed to look after the amendments, but there will be no effort made to control legislation or to influence legislators in an improper manner.

upon some stoves and ranges, but a pot boils very soon on a Stewart high grade steel range. For roasting, boiling, baking or stewing you can regulate the heat to a degree of nicety that you can count on every time. As bakers they are perfect. Our stock of cast and steel ranges, cook and heating stoves for gas, coal or wood are the best that can be produced.

Among our House Furnishing's we call your special attention during this week to the Puritan rice and oatmeal boilers, also "never break" skillets in all sizes, and particularly to our Henis Steak Broilers at 50c each; they catch all the juice, and are far superior to the old style broilers.

LYMAN BLAKESLEY.

The Old Conductor Laid in the Grave.

Served the Pennsylvania Over a Quarter of a Century—A Depot Master Honored—Shop and Rail.

The remains of Lyman M. Blakesley were brought here on Pennsylvania train No. 20 at noon today and conveyed to Lindenwood by Funeral Director Fred Scheumann, were they were buried by the Scottish Rite Masons, of which lodge the deceased was long a member. Mr. Blakesley died Tuesday morning at the home of his brother, Robert Blakesley, in Chicago. He had long been a sufferer from Brights' disease and for the past year was unable to do anything.

Lyman Blakesley was for many years an employe of the Pennsylvania company. His services on that road began in March, 1868, when he became a freight brakeman. January 1, 1869, he was made a conductor and in August, 1872, he was promoted to passenger conductor, which position he filled until September 17, 1891, when he resigned on account of ill health. Mr. Blakesley then went to Emporia, Kansas, and engaged in the hotel business. A year or two ago he retired and since that time has been a resident of Chicago. Harry Blakesley, of Emporia, is a son of the deceased. He was also employed on the Pennsylvania road as a fireman before going to Kansas. The deceased was born March 11, 1842, and was nearly fifty-seven years old. His wife and daughter died in this city some years ago.

Human Eye Injured.

Daniel Kintz, a Nickel Plate fireman, is in the hands of Dr. K. K. Wheelock for treatment for an injured eye. December 14th last, by the explosion of a water gauge in the cab, the optic received a piece of glass, which was so securely imbedded in the ball that it escaped notice. Mr. Kintz was not troubled greatly by the presence of the glass until Monday, when the eye became so painful that he was compelled to seek relief. Dr. Wheelock thinks no permanent injury to the sight will result.

Depot Master Honored.

At Crestline yesterday afternoon B. F. Miller was made the recipient of a fine office chair, the donors being the passenger conductors on the eastern division of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road. Mr. Miller is the depot master at that point for the Pennsylvania company. He was formerly a passenger conductor on the eastern division. He is one of the "old timers," his term of service dating away back in the 50's when the road was new. The presentation was conducted by Trainmaster W. E. Hubbard and Passenger Conductor W. H. Smith, the latter acting in the capacity of spokesman.

A New Lodge.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen will have an auxiliary in a few weeks. The ladies effected an organization at their meeting Monday night and hope to institute the lodge and elect officers the first week in February. They have written to the state organizer, requesting his presence here at that time, but as yet have received no reply. Nearly every eligible lady in the city has either signed for membership or has promised to do so before the charter is closed and the auxiliary will start out with a big membership.

New Railway Project.

The Indiana Electric railway, which now has a line in operation between Elkhart and Goshen, about ten miles, contemplates extending the road southeastorly as far as Fort Wayne, making this city and South Bend its terminals. At least this is the general belief in Elkhart and Goshen. Such a line would be of inestimable value to Fort Wayne, as it would open to our merchants a new and wealthy agricultural district which is now without railway connection. The line as projected will touch at Lake Wawasee, Syracuse, North Webster, Churubusco and other towns, some of which are fifteen or twenty miles from any railway. That portion of the road now in operation parallels the Lake Shore and by making a one-cent-a-mile rate, is receiving the bulk of the travel between Goshen and Elkhart. Its cars run each way every thirty-five minutes.

Personal and General.

John Kress, of the electric works, is sick with the grip.

William Whitesell, a brakeman, has taken a position on the Nickel Plate.

Machinist William Lerch, of the Bass works, is suffering from an attack of the grip.

Engineer H. D. Ross and Fireman C. M. Somers, of the Pittsburg, are sick and off duty.

Will Parry, of A. L. John's shop, has a very sick baby. In fact the little ones life is despaired of.

Frank L. Markey, clerk for General Foreman Timlin at the Wabash shops, is confined to his home by sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Vordermark went to Cosse, Ind., today to attend the funeral of the venerable Rev. Van Sickle.

The Lake Erie and Western earned in the second week of January $52,-047, against $55,562 in the corresponding week of 1898, and against $62,731 in 1897.

N. C. McKinney, the Pittsburg fireman, is a grip victim. He had to quit work this morning.

Nickel Plate Fireman H. F. Blackburn is kept from his duties by the sickness of one of his children.

Engineer H. W. Kruse, of the Pittsburg, has resumed his position in the yard, after a siege with the grip.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Herb Minsor—a daughter. The papa is a local freight fireman on the Nickel Plate.

Nickel Plate Brakemen L. P. Stone, J. J. Auth and W. Rubsck, who had been on the sick list, reported for duty yesterday.

Walter Bowden, operator in the Nickel Plate office, is sick, and L. L. Bart, of Cleveland, was summoned here to fill the vacancy.

The Schenectady locomotive works expect to ship two of the large new passenger engines building for the Vandalia lines by February 15th.

N. G. Kucher, stenographer for Captain H. Stoll, was taken sick last night and was unable to go to the office this morning. He has the grip.

The testing room at the electric works was in operation until 12 o'clock last night, getting some dynamos ready for shipment to Washington, D. C.

Samuel Hooper, Nickel Plate engineer, has been released from quarantine and is again at work. One of his children was sick with diphtheria, but it has entirely recovered.

The improvements that the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago has under contemplation at Allegheny will cost $1,500,000. The new bridge across the Allegheny river will be included.

It is stated that L. D. Dewey, on becoming general manager of the Detroit and Lima Northern, will generally reconstruct the heads of departments and introduce entirely new methods.

Westbound passenger train No. 15 was so far behind time when it reached Pittsburg last night that it was annulled and sent out as the second No. 5. It did not reach this city until after 8 o'clock.

William Holze, who has been very sick, visited his shopmates at the Pittsburg yesterday for the first time since he was taken ill—the latter part of October. He will return to his work in the shop in a week or two.

A Peru paper says the distinction of being the oldest agent on the Wabash, in time of service, belongs to J. Dillington, of Dawson, and not to Mr. Zent, of Roanoke. Mr. Dillington's service commenced June 1, 1854.

The Lake Erie and Western railroad will now issue inter-line mileage exchange tickets on C. P. A. mileage books, such tickets to points on the Big Four, via Muncie and to points on the C. H. & D. railway, via Connersville.

The engines the Baldwin locomotive works are to build for the Erie road will be of the Vauclain type, have twenty-two by twenty-six inch cylinders, a driving wheel six feet in diameter, with 82,000 pounds resting on the drivers.

The business of the Panhandle at Columbus, Ohio, has so increased that the engineering department has been instructed to lay out a larger system of tracks and to make surveys to see what additional land needs to be purchased to enlarge the yards.

Passenger men seemingly are carrying out their instructions as to strict maintenance of tariffs, more strictly, if possible, than are the freight men, and many persons who have been favored with half or shaded rates on some slight excuse have to pay full tariff rates.

New grip victims in the Pittsburg shops: F. Gephard, G. M. Johnson, G. E. Sarrazon, Peter Poirey, William Bong, H. H. Stahl and Hugh Piper. Men who have recovered and resumed work: Jacob Waldschmidt, L. E. Rehling, Charles Dunn, J. A. Nolan and P. E. Albers.

The fact that General Manager Halsted, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, has declined to accept the presidency of the road with the retirement of Samuel Sloan, is giving the officers and employes on the lines much anxiety, as most of them have been on the road from boyhood.

George Scott, sr., the machinist, who had a leg broken in the Pittsburg shops January 8, 1898, called at that place yesterday to say that he will resume work February 1. The fracture was a bad one and for some weeks it was believed Mr. Scott would never be able to walk again.

A change in firemen has occurred on some of the Nickel Plate runs. C. Barnes is now on passenger engine 163 with Engineer R. M. Germain, John Dickson is now on passenger engine 154 with Engineer James Hardigan and John Raney is on local freight engine 44 with Engineer Bremelmeier.

F. J. Yarman, a switchman, has taken a position as local freight brakeman on the Wabash for awhile, filling the place made vacant by Mr. Clements, who has taken a position on the Nickel Plate. Mr. Yarman does not intend to serve as brakeman but a few days, or until the company secures some other person.

The White Pass and Yukon line is completed from Skaguay to White Pass, and work is being pushed on the extension to Selkirk, a distance of thirty two miles. Over 6,000 men are employed in construction of the line, which is being built with money furnished by English capitalists.

General Passenger Agent Ruggles, of the Michigan Central, when asked to explain why that road and the Lake Shore had withdrawn from the Chicago Railway Passenger Association, the oldest organization of the kind in the West, said: "We do not propose to be party to any association publishing a rate sheet which implies a recognition of the differential fare principle, or which can possibly be construed as an agreement between roads to maintain certain rates. The motto of the Vanderbilt lines is to be 'common time—common fare.'"

The Seaboard Air-line has given notice that it will cut rates from Atlanta and Athens to Portsmouth and Norfolk from twenty-five to twenty cents per hundred, beginning February 1st. The Southern gives evidence that it is in the fight to stay, for authority has been secured from the railroad commission to reduce the Brunswick-Savannah rate from nineteen to fifteen cents, which preserves the differential of six cents which originally existed between rates to those ports and the Norfolk-Portsmouth rates. The Central Georgia will again reduce its rates to Savannah.

TOLEDO WILL STICK.

Strobel is Satisfied to Remain in the Inter-State.

Does Not Want a Franchise in the Western With Buffalo a Member—Better Ball in Inter-State.

The Toledo Bee of Tuesday prints the following interview with Manager Strobel, which will be of interest to Fort Wayne patrons of the game:

"I am asked nearly every day," says President Strobel, "if Toledo will have a team next season and in which league it will be. Toledo has a good team and will be in the Inter-State league next season. I was an applicant for a Western league franchise on account of the fact that it had larger towns, but I do not want a franchise in that league while Buffalo is a member of the circuit, as it was never considered a good ball town. The Western league is weaker today than it ever was because of the admission of Buffalo. If Toronto had been given a franchise it would break the jump between the western towns and Buffalo and if the Western does not get Toronto I would not take a franchise for love or money. Think of a league which has longer jumps than the National and twenty-five cent ball. How can they make it pay? * * *

"Toledo will be in the Inter-State until she is asked to join some league that has an inducement to offer without asking a big price for it and also wanting a team to jump across the continent to play ball. We want to play with our rival teams, such as Columbus, Wheeling, Saginaw, Grand Rapids, Fort Wayne, Dayton and towns like that. What do the fans care for Kansas City, Buffalo and other towns close to the coast line? I am satisfied with the Inter-State and will stay. One of the best patrons of the game in this city told me the other day that he had seen all kinds of ball and had seen every game last season, but he still wanted the Inter-State, as they played faster ball than the Western and had as much ginger as the big fellows. The knockers I have found are the ones who go in on passes, and they would not be satisfied with the National. We will be in the Inter-State next year, so the anvil chorus might as well begin at once."

HONOR TO DEAD HEROES.

Rabbi Cohn Will Conduct Memorial Services Next Friday Evening.

Next Friday evening a soldiers' memorial service will be held at Achduth Vesholom temple as a tribute to the American soldiers who perished on the United States battleship Maine in Havana harbor, February 15, 1898, and to the American soldiers who died in the camps and hospitals and on the battlefields during the Spanish-American war.

These services are to be held in the Hebrew churches throughout the country, pursuant to a resolution passed at a recent meeting of the Union of American Hebrew congregations. In every community the volunteer soldiers will be notified of the services and be asked to attend. A collection will be taken up, which will go toward the fund being raised to erect a monument in Cuba to the American heroes of the Spanish war. Rabbi Cohn will conduct the services in this city.

A Shareholder's Statement.

I noticed in last night's SENTINEL that the Electrical Savings' association, identified with the Fort Wayne Electric Corporation, had paid 73 per cent. of the money due the stockholders, the balance to be paid in a few days, and that the original time of existence, namely, nine years, had expired, which necessitated the closing of the association's affairs.

The foregoing is an erroneous publication. The true state of affairs is quite different and I would ask that THE SENTINEL kindly consult its authority for a more exact and less misleading statement. I feel certain that most of the members of the Electrical association have no desire to unjustly censure the management of its affairs, but I feel also that it is due the public that if any statement is to be made, it should be the truth.

Many Applicants for Enlistment in the U. S. Army.

Four Recruits Have Already Left for Fort Barrancas, in Florida—Others Leave Tonight.

For several days past Lieutenant A. G. Jenkins, of the First United States artillery, which is stationed near Pensacola, Fla., has been in the city to get recruits for the United States army. Since establishing the recruiting station in the Schmitz block, he has had nearly forty applications, from which number only eight have passed. The examination for entering the service is strict. Dr. C. V. Leesly, the medical examiner, is kept busy throughout the day and at any time during the officer hours of the recruiting officer the corridor is crowded with young men anxious to join the ranks. Four recruits who passed a successful examination, left last night for Pensacola, Fla., to report. There were Henry F. Corrigan, John R. Stone, Clyde A. Klinger and George E. Saider. Four more may leave this evening.

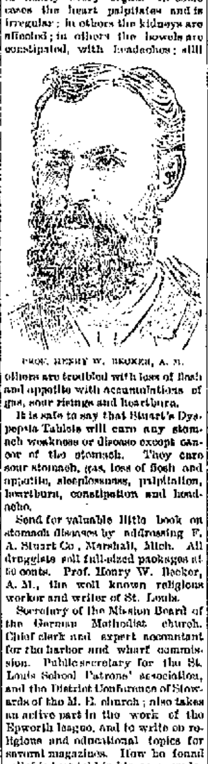

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.

To Gain Flesh, to Sleep Well, to Know What Appetite and Good Digestion Mean.

Make a Test of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

No trouble is more common or more misunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think their nerves are to blame and are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicines. The real seat of the mischief is lost sight of. The stomach is the organ to be looked after.

Nervous dyspeptics often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly every organ. In some cases the heart palpitates and is irregular; in others the kidneys are affected; in others the bowels are constipated, with headaches; still others are troubled with loss of flesh and appetite with accumulations of gas, sour risings and heartburn.

It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any stomach weakness or disease except cancer of the stomach. They cure sour stomach, gas, loss of flesh and appetite, sleeplessness, palpitation, heartburn, constipation and headache.

Send for valuable little book on stomach diseases by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. All druggists sell full-sized packages at 50 cents. Prof. Henry W. Becker, A. M., the well known religious worker and writer of St. Louis.

Secretary of the Mission Board of the German Methodist church. Chief clerk and expert accountant for the harbor and wharf commission. Public secretary for the St. Louis School Patrons' association, and the District Conference of Stewards of the M. E. church; also takes an active part in the work of the Epworth league, and to write on religious and educational topics for several magazines. How he found relief is best told in his own words:

"Some weeks ago my brother heard me say something about indigestion, and taking a box from his pocket said, 'Try Stuart's Tablets.' I did, and was promptly relieved. Then I investigated the nature of the tablets and became satisfied that they were made of just the right things and in just the right proportions to aid in the assimulation of food. I heartily endorse them in all respects, and I keep them constantly on hand."
